

Beautiful Possibilities. . . Affordable Elegance

You wouldn't find a more tranquil setting for your special day than the grounds surrounding the newly constructed clubhouse at Spring Creek. The structure's subtle nature with exposed beams and native rock foundation, blends with the rolling hills and landscape of Central Virginia. Your guest's experience begins from the moment you arrive, with the clubhouse's stunning breezeway and the panoramic view of the lakefront setting. With a variety of event space options, your personal touch is all it will take to create a magical and memorable celebration.

Frequently Asked Questions

- » Is catering done on premise or can we hire our own caterer? All catering is done in house and is provided by Tavern on the Green.
- » Can I have my ceremony onsite? Yes, you can use the lawn adjacent to the Celebration Room at no additional expense to host your ceremony. You are responsible for renting chairs and décor. We have an alternative indoor space in case of inclement weather which can be reserved for a $500 fee which will not be charged if you do not end up using it.
- » When should my ceremony begin? The Celebration Room will be available to you and your vendors at noon the day of your event. You should plan your event so it begins at or later than 4:00pm.
- » May I have a rehearsal for my ceremony? Yes, Spring Creek club house hosts events throughout the week so rehearsals should be scheduled in advance and be held during normal business hours and conclude by 5 pm. We would love to host your guests for dinner that evening.
- » When may I access the building? You and your vendors will have access to the Celebration Room at noon the day of your wedding. Setup, breakdown, and cleanup is provided by Spring Creek. Setup may begin at noon on the day of the event and cleanup takes place at completion of the event. All personal and rented items must be removed from the Celebration Room after the event. Pickup of any personal items, flowers, rentals, etc. stored outside must be picked up by 10 a.m. the next day.
- » Are there dressing rooms for the bride and groom? There is a suite for the bride and her bridesmaids. There is also a suite for the groom and his groomsmen. We are pleased to offer food and beverage service to you while you get ready for your big day. Please note: No outside food or alcohol is permitted. These rooms are shared with our members who respect and celebrate in your day; if needed a separate private room is available for a fee.
- » May I have my dog in my ceremony? Yes. You may include your dog in your ceremony, but they must be on a leash at all times. Dogs are not to be left unattended throughout the event. Pets are not permitted in the Celebration Room during your event. Service animals are permitted.
- » Are we allowed to take photos on the golf course? Yes, of course; please coordinate this with our Event Director.

SPRING CREEK

EVENTS

» What can be used for the send-off for the bride and groom? We allow bubbles, real rose petals or sparklers. Sparklers are permitted outside only and you should provide a receptacle for their disposal. Wish lanterns or other objects that are released into the air are illegal in the state of Virginia and are not allowed.

» Are candles/lanterns allowed to be used for decor? May I hang anything on the wall? You are able to use candles in your decor; however, no open flames are allowed. All candles must be placed inside of a proper vessel which covers the flame and prevents any wax from spilling. Taper style candles are prohibited. Nothing may be added to or suspended from the walls.

» Can your parking lot accommodate buses? Yes, buses and shuttles are welcome and encouraged.

» Where are the closest accommodations for my guests? There are several bed and breakfasts and many hotels conveniently located within minutes of Spring Creek.

» What circuitry is available for my band or DJ? A 50-watt circuit is available for your band or DJ.

» Can we meet with our caterer/photographer/etc. at the club house? Yes. Please schedule all meetings with the Event Director.

We look forward to seeing you at Spring Creek soon!
